Sarah, Lock

Hi, I'm Sarah Lock, I'm an artist and illustrator. I have an MA in Children's Book Illustration from Cambridge School of Art.

I live on the South Coast of England in a little village by the sea with my husband and two dogs. We are really blessed to live in such a lovely place and have the privilege of being able to enjoy the countryside and the beaches nearby. It is quite a contrast from the area where I grew up, in North London, which I am also very thankful for, as it has helped make me the person I am today. Both experiences give me endless inspiration for my illustration work.

I am fascinated by people and animals, which inspire me too. I love drawing from real life and I like my illustrations to be based on reality, so observational drawing is a must for me. I like to capture character and emotion. You will often find me in a café with a cup of tea and a slice of cake, sketching people around me.

I like to create books that are issue-based, but also like making fun stories
